

Addressing Coaches & Clients 21st Century Challenges

This program is designed to help coaches tackle the pressing challenges of our time. Drawing from their extensive international experiences and insights from their co-authored book, Céline and Belinda offer a distinctive legitimacy in guiding coaches through global topics such as war, eco-anxiety, and societal shifts. Their ability to navigate diverse and complex environments ensures a well-rounded and impactful supervision experience. Leveraging insights from their co-authored book on the supervision of current global topics such as war, eco-anxiety, and societal shifts, Céline and Belinda bring a unique perspective to supervision. Their work provides a framework for understanding how these issues impact both coaches and their clients.
